SUNDAY 1ST JUNE 2025

SEVENTH SUNDAY OF EASTER—YEAR C

Parish Mass Book Page 281, Order of Mass P6, The Nicene Creed P11

On the seventh Sunday of Easter, we always read from the 17th chapter of John's Gospel. This chapter of John's Gospel comes at the conclusion of Jesus' Farewell Discourse delivered to the disciples at the Last Supper. The whole of this chapter is a prayer of Jesus, commending himself to the Father and expressing his care and concern for his disciples. At the end of this prayer, Jesus and his disciples leave for the garden, and Jesus is arrested.

Several important themes appear in this prayer of Jesus. First, Jesus' prayer reaffirms the complete union between Jesus and the Father. Throughout John's Gospel, Jesus has been presented as the one who pre-existed with the Father and as the one sent by the Father to do his work on earth.

In today's reading, we hear Jesus ask that the unity he experiences with the Father be extended to all who believe in him. He prays that we be one with each other, with him, and with the Father. We are reminded that Christ is the source of Christian unity and through Christ, we are united with one another and with God our Father.

This Week's Joke:

What do you call a sad Strawberry?

A blueberry!!!!

We ran out of prayer cards last week and so we've made a few more for this week. If you didn't get one, they are in the porch for you if you'd like to pick one up.

These prayer cards are to celebrate 10 years since Pope Francis wrote Laudato Si', setting out a bold vision for our common home. The next chapter of Laudato Si' begins with us.

If you would like to know more about the work our Care for Creation team is doing please contact the Parish Office.

"Let us sing as we go. May our struggles and our concern for this planet never take away the joy of our hope."

Help Required: Saturday 7th June

The Care for Creation group will be planting their vegetable and flower seedlings on Saturday 7th June... weather permitting. Please meet at All Saints cemetery at 12 noon with seedlings, potatoes, trowel, gloves, trugs etc. We hope to weed the beds and hopefully, the cemetery paths.

After the recent wind, the cemetery needs a bit of a tidy up. Any parishioners willing to join us will be very welcome.

All Saints Church Painting

Last year when we replaced the ceiling tiles we had to take everything down. It was then we realised that the church could also do with painting. We are going to do this from the week commencing 9th June. Consequently, weekday mass will be held in the Francis room on Wednesday and Friday at 9.30am. Hopefully it will be done by the weekend, but if not it will continue the following Monday/Tuesday.
