Parish Mass Book Page 98, Order of Mass P6,
The Nicene Creed P11

One of the messages of the storm story is that the Lord remains with the church in the storm. The Lord is present to his fearful and faithless disciples. He may rebuke us as he rebuked those disciples in the boat. However, his presence to us in the storm is not just a rebuking presence. It is ultimately a creative and life-giving presence. Jesus brought calm out of the chaos; he tamed the storm and saw to it that the boat reached the other side. The Lord remains stronger than the storms that threaten the church, whether those storms are self-inflicted or brought on by others or a combination of both.

Like the apostles, we need to trust that Our Lord works to bring his church through the storm to a new place where, as in their case, fear gives way to awe and their rebuking question, 'Master, do you not care?' gives way to amazement, 'Who can this be? Even the winds and sea obey him.' This conviction (that the Lord of the church is stronger than the storm) should not make us complacent. Yet, it keeps us hopeful and faithful, even when so much seems under threat.

St. Paul makes a wonderful statement at the beginning of that second reading, 'the love of Christ overwhelms us.' Another translation would be 'the love of Christ urges us on.' The love of Christ for us was revealed above all in his death on the cross. As Paul says in his letter to the Romans, 'God proves his love for us in that while we still were sinners Christ died for us.' It is that remarkable love of God in Christ for us that urges us on, even when we are battling against a headwind. It urges us on until we reach what the gospel calls 'the other side', the place towards which the Lord is guiding the church — the place where he wants us all to be.

Peter's Pence 2nd Collection: Next Weekend

The Peter's Pence Collection occurs on June 29th, the Solemnity of St. Peter and St. Paul, as a sign that Catholics around the world are joined together in support of the Holy Father. Support for such papal efforts has its roots in the scriptural message to take care of the poor and is an expression of unity with the Holy Father. Peter's Pence expresses this unity in two ways: through the ongoing activities of the Holy See and through the charitable works of the Holy Father on behalf of those most in need.

Catholic Chaplaincy: "I was sick and you cared for me..."

The Catholic Chaplaincy to the Liverpool Hospitals (The Royal, Broadgreen, and Aintree) is looking for new volunteers to join the team. Volunteers often enjoy visiting patients and their families on the wards. These visits can include praying with patients and bringing them Holy Communion, or simply having a chat. It is possible to volunteer just a few hours one morning or afternoon each week. Full training and support will be given. You don't have to be an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion. If you are interested in this very rewarding opportunity, please contact Fr Peter by email peter.murphy@rlbuht.nhs.uk or by calling 0151 706 2828.

June is the Month of the Sacred Heart

A short Act Of Consecration to the Sacred Heart

Sacred Heart of Jesus,
filled with infinite love, broken by my ingratitude,
pierced by my sins, yet loving me still,
accept the consecration which I make to you,
of all that I am and all that I have.
Take every faculty of my soul and body,
and draw me, day by day, nearer and nearer to your sacred side:
There, as I can hear the lesson,
teach me your blessed ways. Amen

This Week's Joke:

Why are soldiers never locked out of their vehicles?
Because they've always got their Khaki's on them!!!

Gift Aid Letters

For all of you who allow us to claim the tax back on your Offertory donations you will find your annual letter at the back of church detailing how much you have given over the last fiscal year and thus how much we will be claiming back from the tax man. Please do pick it up— it will save on stamps! If the amount isn't correct then please inform us through the office.

Heath Street Methodist Church

Heath Street Methodists are requesting any Unwanted Items for Recycling. A list of the items can be found on the poster on the notice board and can be taken to the Heath Street during coffee mornings on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday & Friday 9am - 11am or Sundays between 10am –1pm
